Profile

Steven Camhi is of counsel in M&R's Los Angeles office. Having a particularly thorough understanding of civil and post judgment enforcement procedures, he frequently obtains favorable results for clients across industries. Steve works diligently to resolve claims quickly, avoiding costly litigation whenever possible. His record of success litigating complex business matters is enviable.

By virtue of his extraordinary reputation as a winning litigator, Steve has had the good fortune of representing a slew of businesses in the advertising, financial services, restaurant, food and beverage and real estate spaces. He counsels these and other institutional clients in pre-litigation business disputes, not to mention his work in post-judgment litigation matters.

In addition, Steve represents manufacturing companies, routinely resolving disputes with vendors, customers and business associates. All of his clients seek Steve out by virtue of his commitment to their long-term business goals.
