M&R Secures Two Major Restaurant Closings

October 20, 2015

Michelman & Robinson, LLP (M&R) represented No MSG, LLC (Principals Marc Rose and Med Abrous of 900 Management, LLC) in the purchase of Genghis Cohen, a longstanding Chinese restaurant and Los Angeles Landmark. Jordan Bernstein negotiated the deal, with assistance from M&R's Intellectual Property and Labor & Employment Departments. The restaurant will continue its operations in the anticipation of a remodel of the bar area/music venue and re-facing of the dining room in approximately six months.

Additionally, M&R client, Kali Dining, purchased Midtown Kitchen and Bar on Melrose in the Hancock Park area of Los Angeles. The Principal is renowned Chef Kevin Meehan, formally of the Patina Group. Mr. Bernstein negotiated all agreements. The establishment will become "Kali" restaurant after the close and re-opening.
